

What are the Fulbright Awards?

Fulbright Postgraduate Awards provide funding and support for postgraduate study or research in the United States. Our mission is to advance knowledge, promote civic engagement and develop compassionate leaders through education exchange between the peoples of the US and the UK.

Fulbrighters enrich their educations, advance their careers and make meaningful contributions abroad and at home. Upon returning to their home countries, institutions, or classrooms, they share their stories and often continue the work they started abroad – and join thousands of alumni serving as leaders across the globe.

We are looking for applicants who can engage with the USA in an atmosphere of openness, academic integrity and intellectual freedom, thereby promoting mutual understanding.

“Being awarded a Fulbright Scholarship, and the Alumni Award, has afforded me an opportunity to showcase the importance of support. Yes hard work ‘can’ pay off, yes socio-economic barriers continue to be almost impermeable – but there are people within society that facilitate opportunity, not just by what they are afforded to ‘materially offer’, but the manner in which they support and humanise you.”

Ask our Alumni

The Commission is committed to inclusive and equitable awards processes. This involves inspiring prospective applicants who may be from more disadvantaged or underrepresented backgrounds to know that Fulbright is an option for them. We want all our applicants to have equal access to support and information when making decisions about postgraduate study in the US, and in navigating the Fulbright process.

Find out more about why applying for a Fulbright Award to the US is the right choice, by asking our Alumni your questions. Everyone has a story to tell, and we want to hear yours in your application!
