Aims:

- To give students some critical insights into the theology, theory and practice of preaching.
- To enable students to deploy and evaluate a range of interpretive approaches to Scripture in preaching.
- To develop further students' skills and knowledge to sustain them as reflective practitioners in this area of public ministry.
- To develop a critical understanding of the relationship between preaching and a range of pastoral ministries and situations.
- To give students a critical insight into the study of contemporary culture as the context for preaching and communication.

Content:

This module provides opportunities to engage critically with key aspects of preaching including:

- the theology and theory of preaching
- different models and forms of preaching and how to prepare
- critical approaches to engaging with Scripture and doctrine
- further rhetorical strategies
- critical ways of engaging with context
- practical skills of delivery
- handling difficult texts
- reflective strategies for preaching at times of crisis or current events.

Particular attention will be paid to how these key elements relate to a range of liturgical, ministerial and pastoral contexts with a view to enabling students to sustain a preaching ministry.
