

Developing Theological Reflection (TMM2567)

Module Level: 5

Module Credit Value: 10

Pre-requisites: None

Co-requisites: None

Excluded Combination of Modules: None

Aims: Theological reflection is a core skill that permeates and underpins the whole programme. The module aims:

To enable students to understand the central place of theological reflection in their learning and in their preparation for, and practice of, their chosen vocation.

To extend students' understanding of the principles and methods of theological reflection.

To enable students to apply this in a number of increasingly complex settings.

Content: Models of theological reflection and their relationship to reflective practice.

The application of theological reflection to a number of settings of increasing diversity and complexity e.g. pastoral incidents, spiritual life, ethical issues, formational issues, ecclesiological issues.
