TMMC3141	Reflective Practice in an Ecumenical Context	6	20	NO	This module involves a partnership between a student's training institution and an ecumenical (and normally international) study/eclesial context. A candidate will engage in modules as provided by and agreed with the ecumenical training institution and will live and study alongside those in the host training institution. It provides opportunity to enhance skills in understanding and analysing context, and integrating theological enquiry with pastoral and ministerial practice. It draws upon the resources of scripture and relevant Christian traditions in critical conversation with insights and differing understandings from other denominations. It demands of students attentiveness to their own assumptions and biases. Reflecting upon their engagement with the common life and study of the ecumenical student body and encounters with churches of a different denomination, students will take responsibility for identifying key aspects, encounters and themes out of which to develop work for assessment.
