3011	Further Biblical Studies		6	20	NO	This module aims to understand the Bible better within its original context (as that can best be reconstructed), and as it has been interpreted in many different contexts during history. The ways people have explored the world behind the text, in the text and in front of the text and have applied the text to their own context will be considered. This leads to an exploration of how we can develop good practice in using the Bible within preaching, bible studies and other ministerial settings. 3181	Christian Faith and Ethical Living		6	20	NO	This module integrates the theory and practice of Christian ethics. It begins by looking at questions of methodology in Christian ethics, commending an approach to Christian ethics which engages with key sources: the Bible, Christian tradition, reason and experience. It considers different approaches which variously emphasise rules, consequences and virtues, before looking more closely at the key virtues of love and justice. Linked with this discussion is a survey of important issues in the contemporary world, exploring topics in political, ecological, economic, medical and sexual ethics. Both academic understanding of Christian ethics and the practical living of Christian faith are emphasised	Lectures	Classroom based: 20 Preparation: 180 Total 200	Component 1 Written assignment, 2,500 words 50% Component 2 Resource for others and written rationale / commentary, 2,500 words 50%
