

Durham Centre for Sustainable Development Law and Policy Launching Event

Expanding Boundaries: A multi-disciplinary exploration in support of the Sustainable Development Goals

25 January 2023, 2pm – 6pm, followed by a reception

Venue: PCL 048, Durham Law School, Palatine Centre

SCHEDULE

- 1.50pm      Registration (Outside PCL 048)
- 2pm         Opening remarks by Pro-Vice Chancellor (Global) Prof Claire O'Malley
- 2.05pm      Welcome by Dr Adefolake Adeyeye, Co-Director CSDLP
- 2.10pm      About the Centre – Prof Petra Minnerop, Director CSDLP
- 2.15pm      Session 1 (Moderator: Dr Jessica Lehman, Co-Director CSDLP) “lightning talks” of max 10 minutes to establish potential for collaboration.
- Prof Chris Stokes - The Importance of the Paris Climate Agreement for Preventing Sea Level Rise from the World's largest Ice Sheet in East Antarctica, Dept of Geography
- Dr Rozemarijn J. Roland Holst - (Un)Making Global Commons: The Role of International Organisations, Durham Law School
- Dr Christopher Szabla - Climate Migration vs. International Migration Law: Conflict or Opportunities? Durham Law School

Prof Petra Minnerop - NDCs as prescribed qualified unilateral acts in international law: consequences for the Global Stocktake, Durham Law School

Prof Ming Du - Unilateral Environmental Measures in the Eyes of International Trade Law, Durham Law School

Dr Adebola Adeyemi - Promoting Sustainable Development through local Participation in Development Projects, Durham Law School

3.15pm      Q&A

3.30pm      Tea/Coffee break/Cakes

4pm        PhD Session (Moderator: Dr Adefolake Adeyeye) “lightning talks” of max 10 minutes to establish joint interests and opportunities for further conversation.

Mr Matthias Nouvet - Statehood and climate change, Durham Law School, PhD

Ms Yuxiao Wang - Reciprocity: A Bridge towards SDG 6.5?, Durham Law School, PhD

Ms Kalila Mackenzie - The effect of UK policy on households' adoption of microgeneration renewable energy systems, Durham Law School, PhD

Ms Yaoqi Zheng - How to address the social costs (more women in finance) within the ESG framework, Durham Law School, PhD

4.40pm      Q&A

4.50pm      Session 2 (Moderator: Prof Petra Minnerop) “lightning talks” of max 10 minutes to establish potential for collaboration.

Dr Jane Rooney - The Extractive Industry and Foreign Security Network, Durham Law School

Dr Jessica Lehman - Exploring the intersections of climate change and fossil fuel extraction, Dept of Geography

Dr Smith Azubuike - Justice in the Energy Transition: A case for the Global South, Durham Law School

Dr Angelia Wang - Sustainable production and recycling with 3D printing and blockchain technologies, Durham Law School

Dr Adefolake Adeyeye - Modern Slavery and the SDGs, Durham Law School

Dr Laura Marsiliani, Dr Thomas Renstrom and Ms Lucy Naga - Moral preferences and taxation of green consumerism, Durham Business School

5.50pm      Q&A

6.05pm      Reflection and Reception (Room TBC)

Remarks by Dean Prof Volker Roeben and Justice Brian Preston, Visiting Professor, Durham Law School

We would like to invite all participants to reflect on the following points:

- Key priority areas for research and projects for the CSDLP
- Identify main pillars for our research strategy of the CSDLP within DLS and Durham University
- How can the CSDLP support you, in your research, impact and convenorship activities?

Any other points that are important!

7.30pm      Closing