

Complaint Procedure for Students

Introduction

Sometimes, despite its best endeavours, the University does not get things right for you, and this Complaint Procedure is one of the ways the University can correct mistakes when the University needs to. Most complaints can be resolved easily and quickly when the University knows something has not been done in the way it should and, when this happens, the University welcomes the opportunity to put things right.

You can take your complaint straight to your College, academic department, or support service to explain what has gone wrong (see section 21). If you are not satisfied with the outcome or if you do not want to contact your College, academic department, or support service, you can still go on to make a written complaint under this Procedure (see section 22) and send it to the Student Conduct Office to be dealt with.

Every complaint that the Student Conduct Office receives is given to a named Case Manager, who will be in contact with you and keep you informed of the way your Complaint is being dealt with. You can ask your Case Manager questions and ask for updates.

As a first step after your complaint has been received, the Student Conduct Office will, if it is necessary, help you to set out your complaint in a way to make it easy (and, we hope, quick) for an investigator to look at (see section 23).

The Student Conduct Office will send your complaint directly to the department of the University you are complaining about. (This is called 'The Early Resolution Stage'.) The department will have 21 days to try and resolve the matter (section 24). If you are not satisfied with the outcome, you can then ask for your complaint to be investigated formally by an investigator. In exceptional cases, your complaint may be sent to an investigator without going through the Early Resolution Stage.

Your investigator will have 42 days to write a report into your complaint. Occasionally in the case of complicated complaints, it may take longer than 42 days to get the report to you - but investigators do try very hard to keep to the deadline. We will let you know if there is likely to be a delay and we will give you an estimate of how long we think the delay will be.

If you are unhappy with the investigator's conclusions, you can ask for the investigation report to be reviewed (section 33). Section 42 explains what you can then do if you remain dissatisfied after exhausting all the University's procedures.

If you have any questions about this Procedure, please do get in touch with the Student Conduct Office (student.cases@durham.ac.uk).

Please note

1. This Procedure has been written in plain English to make the Procedure easy to understand.
2. Words that are italicised and with a capitalised first letter in the remainder of this Procedure (such as the word 'Complainant') are defined and explained in the section called 'Definitions' in the last section of this Procedure.
3. The Student Conduct Office may agree to extend the deadlines set out in this Procedure if the Complainant has a disability registered with the University's Disability Support service if the disability affects the Complainant's ability to meet the deadline.

4. Complainants are expected to adhere to the University's Code of Practice on Student Behaviour in Appeals and Complaints

Whom is this Procedure for?

(1) This Procedure may be used by

(a) Individual Students; or

(b) Groups of Students who wish to complain about the same matter and who jointly submit a complaint.

(2) When a group of Students submits a complaint, the University will ask the group to nominate one of the Complainants to act as a group representative. The University will communicate only with the group representative and expects the group representative to liaise with the other Complainants in the group.

What is this Procedure for?

(3) Complaints may be about

(a) The University's Action (or lack of Action) in relation to a matter concerning the Student; or

(b) The Student's experience of the standard of Service provided by or on behalf of the University

(c) An academic department, college, finance service, or professional support service

(d) The adequacy of supervision, the arrangements for teaching, or the arrangements for summative assessments.

What is this Procedure not for?

(4) This Procedure does not cover the following (for which other University procedures exist, as shown in the links below):

(a) Appeals relating to Board of Examiners or other relevant committee or officers' decisions relating to examinations, assessments, or academic progress or against expulsion or exclusion on academic grounds (including decisions about Academic Progress Notices Academic Appeals Procedure)

(b) Complaints involving an allegation of Misconduct by a Student Student Discipline Procedure

(c) Complaints relating to the behaviour of an individual

(d) Complaints involving an allegation of sexual violence

(e) Complaints about admissions decisions, Admissions Regulations

(5) Except in exceptional circumstances at the sole discretion of the University, the University will not consider complaints under this Procedure if:

(a) Complaints are made more than 28 Days after the Actions and Services to which the complaints refer or following unsatisfactory outcome of an informal attempt at resolution;

(b) The Complainant does not personally raise the complaint;

(c) The complaint is anonymous;

(d) The complaint is frivolous, vexatious, or motivated by malice.

(6) A complaint may be made even if legal, court, or tribunal proceedings have been commenced, or if a Police investigation into a matter related to the complaint is being undertaken. In such cases, however, the University will usually suspend the investigation of a complaint pending the outcome of the legal, court, or tribunal proceedings or the Police investigation.

(7) Students are not permitted to initiate more than one formal procedure simultaneously for the same or related matters. If this occurs, the Student Conduct Office will advise the Student on:

(a) The appropriate procedure to follow; or

(b) The order in which the procedures are to be followed.

Support

8. When appropriate, a Complainant may seek advice from:

(a) The Complainant's College Student Support Office;

(b) Academic staff;

(c) The Students' Union (see in particular Behavioural Discipline @ Durham SU which offers independent advice or advocacy.

(9) A Complainant may seek advice from the Student Conduct Office (student.cases@durham.ac.uk) on complaints' procedures and processes in relation to this Procedure.

Representation

(10) In any meeting held with University staff under this Procedure, a Complainant has the right to be accompanied by a current member of the University community or a Students' Union representative. The University does not normally permit legal representation at such meetings but will consider requests by complainants for legal representation at the meetings. The decision as to whether to permit legal representation will be taken by the University Secretary (or the University Secretary's nominee) and will be at the University's sole discretion.

(11) The University does not consider it necessary for Students to seek independent legal advice in respect of complaints. It is entirely at Students' discretion and cost if they choose to do so.

Principles of Complaints' Investigations

(12) Complaints will be dealt with efficiently and promptly; however, if the issues are very complex, this may result in a delay to the outcome of the Investigation.

(13) Complaints will be investigated objectively and independently.

(14) The standard of proof in the investigation of complaints is the balance of probabilities, that is, that the matters alleged in the complaint can be shown as more likely than not to be true.

(15) Complainants will be given reasoned outcomes in written form.

(16) If a complaint is upheld, the University will seek to provide an appropriate response and correct any mistakes or misunderstandings.

(17) The University will use its best endeavours to make changes in response to the recommendations of Investigators.

(18) Complainants will not be disadvantaged, penalised, or victimised for making a complaint. However, the University reserves the right to take action against a Complainant if Misconduct by the Complainant is disclosed in the course of an investigation.

(19) Investigators and Reviewers will use their best endeavours to meet the deadlines set out in this Procedure. If it seems likely that a deadline cannot be met, a Complainant will be informed, given reasons, and provided with a revised date that is anticipated for completion.

(20) All complaints will be dealt with in confidence. However, Complainants should note:

(a) The Respondent of a complaint (whether about an individual or section of the University) will receive a copy of the complaint and has the right to respond to it;

(b) Respondents will be informed of the outcome of a complaint;

(c) Third Parties will be consulted if, in the opinion of the Investigator or Panel of Investigators, their views or opinions may be relevant to the investigation of a complaint.

Resolving Complaints Directly

(21) As a first step to making a complaint under this Procedure, Students are urged to seek to resolve their complaints directly. To this end, a complaint relating to:

(a) An academic department should usually be discussed with a Department Manager, Academic Advisor, or Head of Department;

(b) A college should usually be discussed with a member of the College's Student Support Office;

(c) University administrative or support services should usually be discussed with the head of that service.

Making a Formal Complaint

(22) If a Student wishes to make a formal complaint, the Student should complete a University Complaint Form for Students (see Student Complaints) and submit the Form to the Student Conduct Office (student.cases@durham.ac.uk) which will, subject to paragraphs 23-26, initiate an investigation of the complaint.

(23) Within 7 Days of the Student Conduct Office receiving a Complaint Form, the Student Conduct Office will acknowledge receipt of a Complaint Form and undertake some of or all the following:

(a) Ask the Complainant to complete fully, correct, clarify, simplify, shorten, or provide better evidence of some of or all the matters complained about;

(b) Ask the Complainant if the Complainant would like the complaint to be dealt with by mediation and conciliation, that is, by a voluntary process where an impartial, independent third party helps the parties involved in the complaint to resolve issues confidentially and subject to an agreed timescale (see Durham University Mediation Service);

(c) Interview the Complainant;

(d) Advise the Complainant of a different procedure to follow;

(e) In most cases, send the Complaint Form to an appropriate person (or, if the complaint is about more than one issue, to appropriate people) in the college, academic department, administrative or support service which is the subject of the complaint;

(f) Take such other action which, in the opinion of the Student Conduct Office, is helpful or reasonable for addressing the complaint;

(g) Initiate an investigation of the complaint.

Early Resolution Stage

(24) Where the Complaint Form is sent to an appropriate person (or, if the complaint is about more than one issue, to appropriate people) in the college, academic department, administrative or support service which is the subject of the complaint (see 23 (e) above):

(a) An Early Resolution Stage of the complaint is to be conducted with the aim of seeking a resolution of the complaint;

(b) The Complainant may be invited to discuss the complaint as part of the Early Resolution Stage;

(c) Within 21 Days, the college academic department, or administrative support service will by email notify the Complainant and the Student Conduct Office (student.cases@durham.ac.uk) of the outcome of the Early Resolution Stage and the reasons for the outcome.

(25) On completion of the Early Resolution Stage, if Complainants are dissatisfied with the outcome, Complainants may inform the Student Conduct Office (student.cases@durham.ac.uk) that they would like their complaints to be investigated under the Formal Stage of this Procedure.

(26) The Student Conduct Office will not usually initiate an investigation of a complaint under the Formal Stage of this Procedure unless the Early Resolution Stage has been completed.

Formal Stage

(27) When the Student Conduct Office initiates the investigation of a complaint under the Formal Stage of this Procedure, the Student Conduct Office will:

(a) Appoint and then refer the complaint to an Investigator who is independent of the Complainant and the subject-matter of the complaint; or

(b) Refer the complaint to a Panel of Investigators whose members shall be independent of the Complainant and the subject-matter of the complaint.

(28) The Investigator or Panel of Investigators or (on behalf of the Investigator or Panel of Investigators) the Student Conduct Office may:

(a) Ask to interview the Complainant and other relevant parties as part of the Formal Stage;

(b) Take other appropriate action to investigate the complaint expeditiously and fairly, taking into consideration the nature of the complaint.

(29) The Student Conduct Office will use its best endeavours to ensure that the Complainant receives an Investigation Report within 42 Days of the Student Conduct Office initiating a Formal Stage investigation under paragraph 27 of this Procedure. If there is likely to be a delay, the Complainant will be informed of the reason and a revised timescale given.

(30) Possible outcome recommended in the Investigation Report include:

(a) The complaint (or part of it) is upheld or dismissed;

- (b) A resolution reached in co-operation with the department, college, finance or professional support service which is the subject of the complaint;
 - (c) Compensation may be recommended;
 - (d) An apology given;
 - (e) Recommendations for change are made to the relevant decision-making body of the University;
 - (f) Such other outcomes as the Investigator or Panel of Investigators considers appropriate in the circumstances.
- (31) When a complaint is upheld, the University will explain how and when it will implement any remedy.

(32) The Investigation Report will also give information about:

- (a) The Complainant's right to request a Review of the outcome of the investigation of the complaint;
- (b) The grounds on which a Complainant may request a Review;
- (c) The time limit for requesting a Review;
- (d) The procedure for requesting a Review;
- (e) Where and how to access support.

Review

(33) If a Complainant is dissatisfied with the outcome of the Formal Stage, the Complainant may request a Review of the Formal stage Investigation Report by writing to the Student Conduct Office (student.cases@durham.ac.uk) within 14 Days of receiving the Investigation Report.

(34) Reviews are to be requested using the Non-Academic Appeal or Request Form, to be found at Student Complaints

(35) The only grounds of requesting a Review are:

- (a) The identification of a procedural irregularity during the Formal Stage; or
- (b) Provision of new material evidence together with a valid reason why it was not previously submitted; or
- (c) The outcome of the Formal Stage was unreasonable in all the circumstances of the case.

(36) The request for a Review will be acknowledged within 7 Days and a Reviewer appointed to conduct the Review.

(37) An Investigator who has had no previous involvement with the complaint and who is independent of the Complainant will review the Investigation Report as Reviewer.

(38) A Reviewer may seek further information as part of the Review; however, a Reviewer will not usually consider the issues afresh or undertake a further investigation.

(39) The Student Conduct Office will use its best endeavours to ensure that the Complainant receives a Review Report within 28 Days of a request for a Review being received. If there is likely to be a delay, the Complainant will be informed of the reason and a revised timescale given.

(40) If a Reviewer upholds one or more aspects of a Review, the Complainant will be provided with information about outcomes (such as those set out in paragraph 30 above), which may include a new Investigation of the complaint by an Investigator or a Panel of Investigators not previously involved with the complaint or Complainant.

(41) There are no other opportunities for the complaint to be pursued within the University.

(42) The Complainant will be given a Completion of Procedures Letter and informed of the right to submit a complaint to the Office of the Independent Adjudicator for Higher Education, the time limit within which to do so, and where and how to access advice and support.

Definitions

- 'Action' is an action (or lack of action) in relation to a matter concerning a Student
- 'Complainant' is a Student who completes and submits a complaint to student.cases@durham.ac.uk
- 'Complaint Form' is University Complaint Form for Students (see Student Complaints)
- 'Completion of Procedures Letter' is a letter which the University will send to a Complainant when the Complainant has reached the end of the University's internal processes for complaints and where there is no further avenue for the Complainant internally to pursue a Complaint.
- 'Day' means calendar day.
- 'Early Resolution Stage' is a review of a complaint in a Complaint Form that is conducted by an appropriate person in a college, academic department, administrative or support service.
- 'Formal Stage' is the investigation of a complaint by an Investigator or Panel of Investigators
