Aims of the Friends

The Oriental Museum, Durham University, is the only museum in the North of Britain devoted entirely to the art and archaeology of the Orient. Its Chinese and Egyptian collections are among the finest to be found anywhere in Britain. Its collections cover China, Ancient Egypt, Japan, Korea, India and Tibet, the Islamic World and South East Asia.

The Friends of the Oriental Museum is a registered charity. Its aims are to bring together supporters of the Museum and to encourage wider use and enjoyment of the Museum by the Durham community and by others. Through its charitable status, it provides financial assistance to the Museum for special projects, and promotes the Museum's recreational and educational facilities and activities.

Membership Benefits

- Free admission to the Museum
- Advance notice of events and exhibitions
- Invitations to previews of new exhibitions
- Discount on all purchases from the Museum's shop
